

Jesus M. Gonzalez, Director

Jesus M. Gonzalez joined the CCAF Board of Directors in 2017. He currently serves as the Executive Director of Wesley House Student Residence Inc., a nonprofit organization located in San Diego, CA that provides housing and support services for low income students attending San Diego State University. Jesus has 20 years of executive level experience in general management of small to mid-size organizations, fund development, contract and grants administration, program development and implementation, business operations, and human resources management. He is skilled in public speaking, change management, coaching and training, organizational development, cross-functional team leadership, non-profit board governance. His passion is to work with organizations to develop infrastructure that leads to viability and sustainability. Jesus earned his bachelor's degree in social services from Metropolitan State University of Denver.