

M. Anza Vang, Chair

Anza Vang lends key leadership in St. Joseph Health's population health strategy to provide accessible and affordable health care and wellness services where people live, work and play. St. Joseph Health is an integrated healthcare delivery system that services residents throughout Northern and Southern California, West Texas and New Mexico. In her role, she is responsible for the planning and implementation of multiple private and public wellness centers which involves strategy, design and construction, and oversight of key operational activities including staff recruitment and coaching, service and process improvement, and operational data and financial management.

Prior to joining St. Joseph Health, Anza led the implementation of City of Hope's key strategic initiative to bring comprehensive oncology care to cancer patients in their own communities. She's also spent six years with Hoag Memorial Hospital Presbyterian, a not-for-profit regional health care delivery network in Orange County, CA, leading and facilitating advanced planning and analytical consulting initiatives to improve strategic, financial, and operational excellence. Her experience includes the design and development of Hoag's Facilities Brand Guidelines, the framework for future branding projects, increasing the efficiency for project delivery and providing consistency to Hoag's overall aesthetics.

Anza received the 2011 Superior Performance in Real Estate (SPIRE) Award for Philanthropy by Corporate Real Estate Women (CREW)-OC for her role in the redesign of Share Our Selves, the largest comprehensive community clinic in Orange County. She is also the recipient of the 2013 George Pressler Under 40 (Future Leader in Healthcare) Distinction Award by Healthcare Facilities Symposium.

Anza is a licensed broker in Real Estate and holds a Master's degree in Healthcare Management and Policy and Global Health Certificate from the University of California, Los Angeles. Anza also has been awarded the real estate industry's most prestigious designation, the Master of Corporate Real Estate (MCR) by CoreNet Global, the world's leading professional association for corporate real estate and workplace executives.
