

Sarah Slaughter, Director

Sarah Slaughter has been in the nonprofit industry for nearly 20 years. Ms. Slaughter has worked for the San Diego History Center, The San Diego Foundation, The Campanile Foundation, SDSU, and San Diego Second Chance. She also has her own consulting business, where she is utilizing her years of experience in the larger foundation sector to assist smaller nonprofits to raise their level of financial integrity. Ms. Slaughter has a BS in Accounting from San Diego State University.